HOW TO ORGANIZE FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

It is very evident that the Republican party has a great deal of hard work on its hands this fall. It is the only party in the country which is making a square fight on the financial issues. It must meet the Nationals and the Democrats, the two latter being generally united in a purpose to defeat the Republicans. It won't do to play with the issues involved in this campaign. It won't do to treat the money question as if it were a dead matter and not worth talking about. It is the supreme question this year. It is a question of honest money and a stable currency, the revival of business, the upbuilding of our industries, good pay for the laboringman, and profitable times for the farmers; as against a dishonest currency, inflation, the depreciation of the greenbacks, the locking up of capital, wild speculation, the demoralization of trade, and the advance in price of every article the workingman must buy, with a decrease in the purchasing power of the paper dollar. It won't do to trifle with the public credit and faith, nor to attempt to compromise with those who seek to tear down the industries of the nation that their own selfish interests might be promoted. The Republicans everywhere must organize for another victory for the people. They made the greenbacks have stood by them from that day to this, and by the fostering care of the party, the greenback dollar has raised from 38 cents in value to 99¾, and the Republicans having made it an honest dollar, they must see to it that it shall remain so, and that it shall never defraud any man.

The Republicans of Wisconsin must do their share of the work, and should organize for the contest. The Republicans of Rock county are expected to make another gallant fight. They have won many political victories, and their triumph this year should stand among the proudest achievements of the party. Every town should have a well organized, aggresive, Republican club; and every school district should be supplied with the proper documents, from which valuable information regarding the financial issues can be obtained. If the State Central Committee propose to do anything this fall, it should see that the proper documents are religiously distributed, and that the supply is ample for all purposes. Those who can not procure the necessary documents from that source can be supplied by addressing the "Honest Money League" Chicago, Illinois. Beside this, well informed speakers should be sent to every district in the county—speakers who have the confidence of the people and also know what to talk about and how to talk.

Every intelligent voter should thoroughly understand the issues of the campaign. He should understand what would be the effect of issuing a class of government notes which shall never be redeemable, which have nothing behind them to make them as good as silver, or as valuable as gold. The financial question was never more important than it is now, because every man's interest is effected by the result. For this reason the Republicans should be solidly organized, and the Nationals and the Democrats should understand that a paper money such as is wanted by the so-called Greenbackers, "Is the most effectual of invections for fertilizing the rich man's bread by the sweat of the poor man's brow."

BUSINESS LOOKING UP.

Business in every department of trade is looking up, and the prospects are that the fall will be a very lively and profitable one. The latest reports from New York are exceedingly encouraging, and so are they from other commercial centres. During the first ten days of the present month more business was transacted in New York city than for the corresponding days of any year since the panic began. This hopeful condition of things is not confined to the East alone. The West is bracing up under an increased business activity. Every city of importance in the West and the Southwest begins to feel the influence of a revival in trade. The South is likewise encouraged. The New Orleans Times of last week spoke encouragingly of business prospects even in that stricken city. Though the fever is raging with dreadful mortality, and in a measure business is very much effected on that account, the signs give increased hope. That paper after giving a careful survey of the condition of trade and business generally, says with the disappearance of the epidemic, the commercial season will open "with unprecedented promise and phenominal activity." Chicago is likewise enjoying a season of excellent trade, better than it has seen at this time of year since 1873.

We have evidence at our own home that business is growing better. The Wisconsin shoe factory in this city, is on the highway to prosperity. Not since it was started, four years ago, has it been more encouraged than now. The factory is running full time, forty-six persons are employed at the benches, and yet the Company is a month behind in its orders. The quality of work turned out is the best of the class; merchants buy the goods freely and sell them readily to their customers. Other branches of trade are also being stimulated, and the business men encouraged. The National or the so-called Greenback cry that the business of the entire country is paralyzed, the population is reduced to beggary, and the industries overpowered by bankruptcy, is a libel on the nation and a stab at the business interests of the country. With a restoration of public confidence, with careful management of affairs, and with economy in the use of money, the distress will soon be a thing of the past.

The breaking up of the Democratic party in Maine shows how utterly demoralized it is, and how hopeless is its chances for power and place, if left to fight its battles alone. It has been crushed by false principles and false dealings, and its only hope was to prevent the Republicans from winning by joining hands with the Nationals. The New York Tribune says it does not follow by any means that the Democrats would gain control of the House even if the Republicans should fail this year to secure it. The Democratic demoralization and disintegration which appear in Maine may be so great in other States as to leave no possibility of the election of a Democratic Speaker. "If the Republicans are steady and firm, as becomes the veterans of many well-won victories, this breaking up of parties will insure their triumph. Intelligent Democrats who care for the public faith or the Nation's prosperity would in that event be driven to the Republican ranks. A strong reaction must soon set in against the destructive schemes of the Communists."

One of Kearney's hackneyed sayings is that "things have been bad, are bad, and don't seem likely to be better; therefore let us try a change." The Republican party must meet this morbid desire for a change, and must be prepared to convince the people by common sense argument and facts that the Nationalist's theory of a change will prove the ruin of every legitimate business.

The first appearance of yellow fever in New Orleans this year was July 12; at Grenada, July 25; at Memphis, July 30, taken there by a young man who arrived from New Orleans, and who died on the 31 of August; at Vicksburg, the first death was August 12. Since then, 1900 have died at New Orleans; 200 at Grenada; 425 at Vicksburg; and 1250 at Memphis.

The only Democrat in the Vermont Senate will have a boss time of it when he meets in a Democratic Senate caucus. He can have things to suit himself—can elect himself chairman, secretary, and teller, and can talk without being called to order. He can be the most independent Democrat in the United States.

If Senator Carpenter stands by his interview published a few weeks ago, and is really in sympathy with the Republican party, wouldn't it be more in accordance with the fitness of things to postpone his candidacy until the Legislature is secured.

A prominent gentleman in this district who is pledged to the National candidate for Congress, says in withdrawing his support from his old Republican friend and giving it to another, "he feels as guilty as if he were stealing from his children."

Charles D. Parker, the Demo-greenback-ic candidate for Congress, in the Seventh District, has written a letter thanking the parties for nominating him for Congress. After election he will feel like recalling that letter.

The Nationals have made peace with the Democrats as the lion made peace with the lamb, and they lie down together, but, as an Eastern paper says, the lamb is inside the lion.

The result in Maine has not had the effect to bring Thurman out of his seclusion. There don't seem to be an antidote for Sherman's Toledo speech—not even Maine.

Trying to Make Petroleum Flow Like Water.

Though oil is selling as low as eighty-seven cents per barrel, the plucky oil producers still sink new wells and add to the sum of that which was sufficient before. There is a gambling element in the business of digging holes in the ground for oil that apparently settles the judgment. The Oil City Derrick, in its monthly report of business, makes the number of new wells completed in August, one hundred and eighty-eight, with an aggregate yield of two thousand three hundred barrels per day. Preparations for two hundred and forty-two new wells are being made, one hundred and eighty-three having been already partially drilled. The production is still set down at the round figure of forty thousand barrels per day.

THE PLAGUE.

The Physicians Report the Fever Abating—The Latest Reports From the Larger Cities.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Sept. 15.—Clear and warm; thermometer, 90. Physicians think there is a steady decline in the new cases, but fears are entertained if very warm weather returns the fever will again increase. There were 18 deaths to-day—9 white and 9 colored. Among the new cases to-day is William A. Fairchild, a prominent citizen and a member of the Howards.

GRENADA, Miss., Sept. 15.—There were two deaths to-day and two new cases. The fever is abating and we may soon look for a more cheerful condition of affairs. An agent of the railroad company, who arrived here this morning from New Orleans to take charge of the railroad, after viewing the situation concluded to return. He left on the train to-night for New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15—Deaths, 59; cases reported, 149, including 66 cases dating from the 1st to the 11th inst. Weather clear and warmer. The Howard Association reported the new cases at 29, and the Y. M. C. A. 49.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., September 15.—Ninety deaths were reported to-day. It is believed that many have occurred in the suburbs which are not reported, for the reason that the undertakers will not go beyond the city limits, and they that sell coffins for their interment do not report them.

At Elmwood to-day fifty-eight coffins were brought in express wagons, and other vehicles from the suburbs.

Among to-day's dead are Major Wm. Willis, Superintendent of the Southern Express Company, who was a leading member of the Citizens' Relief Committee, and an active worker among the sick and destitute; John G. Lonsdale, Jr., Treasurer of the Citizens' Relief Committee; Ed. Foster, of the Howard Association; R. W. Blew publisher of the Western Methodist, and his wife and child. Another child is dying. Dr. McGregor, of Tipton County, Tennessee, died this morning.

Dr. Armstrong, John Erskine, and D. D. Sanders are in a critical condition.

THE STORM.

Further Particulars of the Great Storm in the East.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 14.—Advices from a great number of points in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia indicate that the storm of the past two days was the most severe experienced for years. The destruction to railroad property especially is heavy. Washouts of culverts and bridges have caused the railroad travel on many routes to cease entirely The storm seems to have expended its greatest force in the interior and eastern portions of the States of Ohio, Western Pendsylvania and Northern West Virginia.

On the line of the Chesapeake, & Ohio Railroad any number of landslides and washouts occurred. An extra train ran into a landslide near Barbourville, W. Va., breaking the steampipe on the engine. Engineer Frank Rosenkranz, Fireman Ed. Wheeler, and C. W. Roberts, brakemen, were scalded. The two latter died. Engineer John Mulcahy was ordered from Cannelton with a freight. Before he had proceeded two miles he ran into a washout causing his instant death.

GENERAL GRANT.

His Interest in Politics at Home—His Opinion of Some of Our Prominent Men.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15—A prominent official, who has returned from Europe, is authority for the report that were it not for General Grant's rule never to leave off anything begun by him until done, he would return to America on the first steamer. The General must go to Madrid, China, and Japan, so that it will be late in the spring before he reaches home. He takes the liveliest interest in politics, and is especially anxious that Howe, Conkling, and Cameron should be returned to the Senate. Of Cameron, he said no man in the administration, not excepting Fish, gave him so much satisfaction as Don Cameron.

INDIAN AGENT.

A New Indian Agency at Standing Rock Agency.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—A successor to W. G. Hughes, Indian agent at Standing Rock Indian Agency in Dakota, has been appointed in the person of Mr. Stephens. Hughes got some notoriety several months ago through his charge to the effect that General Carlin had entered into a conspiracy to kill him, whereas General Carlin represents that he was the means of saving Hughes' life. The latter was charged with corruption in office.

A HORRIBLE CRIME.

A Horrible Murder Perpetrated Near Tomah, Wisconsin.

TOMAH, Wis., Sept. 15.—John Cotter, alias Rochester Jack, a notorious sneak thief, was stabbed several times with a knife, robbed, and placed on the track, where he was run over by a passing train about 1 o'clock on yesterday morning. The perpetrators of the crime are supposed to be tramps, who were aware that he had considerable money in his possession and took this method of securing it No arrests have yet been made.

SENT TO WAUPUN.

Walworth County Sends Two Individuals Up for One and Two Years.

Whitewater, Wis., Sept. 15.—John Regan, of this place, was taken to the penitentiary at Waupun by Sheriff Taylor this morning. He was sentenced to one year, the offense being assault with intent to do great bodily harm upon one Faulkner who had testified against him in a liquor case. A tramp named Nash was taken along at the same time for burglary committed here when Forepaugh's show was in town. He got two years.

POLITICAL.

The Contest for the Democratic Prize in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 15.—There is a lively contest for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district between John Johnson, of Mitchell's Bank, and P. V. Deuster, proprietor of the Daily Seebote. Caucuses take place there to-morrow, and the point of the Johnson side is to carry the city and thus outweigh the influence of Deuster among the Germans of Ozaukee and Washington counties.

A CRUEL CANARD.

The Origin of the Story of General Miles' Massacre.

BISMARCK, D. T., Sept. 14—The story of Miles' massacre in Yellowstone Park originated with the mail-carrier between Bismarck and Fort Keogh, to explain an unnecessary delay of two days, alleging the massacre and that he had been held by the commanding officer for dispatches. He met Dorsey, his employer, at Little Missouri, and he, like others, accepted the story.

GENERAL SHIELDS.

Serious Illness of the Old Veteran in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Major General James Shields, who became quite sick in the Astor House Friday night, after addressing the Mexican war veterans, improved sufficiently to permit his removal to a friend's house, in Brooklyn.

HEART DISEASE.

WATERTOWN, Wis., Sept. 15.—August Black, ex-City Treasurer, while milking his cow this morning, dropped down dead of heart disease.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 15.—Samuel Geiser, an employe of the Gaslight Company, fell dead at the corner of Clinton and Lake streets early this evening. The deceased was about 40 years of age, and leaves a large family residing in Toledo, Ohio.

THE PRESIDENT.

TOLEDO, Sept. 15.—A committee of citizens visited President Hayes at Fremont yesterday and invited him to spend a day here during the tri-state fair, which opens to-morrow. The President accepted the invitation, and will be present on Thursday next.

POISONED HER CHILD.

The Story that a Mother Told the Jersey City Police.

A fashionably dressed woman astonished the Chief of Police in Jersey City on Saturday with the announcement that she had murdered her child and wished to surrender herself. Horrified by the assertion, which the woman made in an apparently cool and collected manner, the Chief imagined that she was demented or intoxicated. She stated that her name was May Phillips. Two years ago she was married to Isaac Phillips, a plumber, doing business in Jersey City. Phillips' family were very much opposed to their union, but they went to live with them at No. 379 Second street. Phillips' family, she said, treated her with indifference at first, but of late have evinced the bitterest animosity toward her. They so embittered her life that she decided a few days ago to quit the house and endeavor to make a living for herself. She went to New York and was fortunate in finding a situation. She had a five months old baby—a boy. When she went away she left it with her husband's relatives. She visited the child a few days ago and her sister-in-law said that she would have to provide for the child herself. She was disheartened and in her despair she went to Irving's drug store on Grove street and bought some laudanum. She intended to kill both herself and the babe. She gave the child half a teaspoonful of the narcotic, and then took a dose herself. That which she herself took had no effect upon her. The child died at two o'clock on Thursday afternoon. Two hours later the body of the little one was carried by herself and husband to the burying ground and buried.

Butler's Ambition.

The ambition of General Butler was to be Governor of Massachusetts, that he might get in his hands the tremendous machinery of that State to tax, to indict, to investigate, to pardon and to reward. Here he met the necessary opposition of the heads of the party, the Hoars, Claflins, Bullocks, Rices, Bartletts, Pierces, etc. In two great conventions, where he appeared in person with the audacity of a slave driver and a pirate in one, he was beaten, but only after much exertion. He finally received the coup de grace from the Democrats too, who beat him in the Gloucester district, where he was a carpet-bagger, by the aid of Republican votes.

On his return to Congress, after taking a grim holiday, Butler saw that his relation to national issues was much mixed. He continued to retain the friendship of the "Stalwarts," or thieves, by threatening Hayes with impeachment, and also to conciliate the Tilden wing of the Democrats by swallowing the Potter Committee's work. All this was meant to be auxiliary to a grand movement of fusion in Massachusetts, Democratic and Republican votes to support him here for Governor on the Labor nomination. He is now before the people, and the campaign is opened. He has the Irish vote, the more savage part of the Republicans, the discontented and snubbed, the mischievous, and those who follow a show rather than a school. He has issued his address to the State people in their State relation only, pooling as well as fooling the real issues.

The Democratic party in their organic relation will decline to indorse him, but will poll a diminished vote on Thompson, Russell or Gastor. I should guess, from what I see, that Butler would be beaten, but he will get a large vote. The Boston Herald and the Boston Post, the more Democratic papers, dislike him bitterly. The Republicans will lose the Prohibition vote, as usual, and this leads the Democrats to hope that they may slip in—Butler and Prohibition both weakening their Republican adversary.

CONGRESSMAN WILLIAMS.

His Letter to the Milwaukee Sentinel in Reply to Its Charge of "Dickers, Machine Politicians, and Congressional Rings."

To the Editor of the Sentinel.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 9.—In your editorial to-day you commence as follows:

Another disgraceful dicker has developed; this time taking in the First Congressional District involving Postmaster Keyes and Congressman Williams and including The Janesville Gazette.

You then go on and say, that I had written an editorial for The Gazette attacking the Republican State Central Committee; and that like Mr. Caswell, I have also agreed to use my influence to secure members of the Legislature favorable to Mr. Keyes for the United States Senate in consideration that he, Keyes, would use his power in favor of my re-election to Congress.

Now what do you mean? I dislike to believe that you intend to lie right straight along, continuously without any lucid intervals whatever; and yet what other inference can be drawn from the above, based upon so flimsy a pretext as that Mr. Keyes passed through Janesville on his way to the Monroe fair? Why! bless your candid soul, Mr. Keyes and myself have had no verbal nor written communication whatever on the subject of politics or any other subject for the last three months. I saw him casually at our county fair, but not a word was uttered by either of us in criticism of the State Central Committee, or referring to that committee in any way. I was not at the Gazette office after I saw him that day; never saw nor heard of the editorial in question until I saw it in the columns of the Gazette; and am happy to inform you that I have neither dictated nor written a line or sentence upon politics for the Gazette while it has been under its present management. It has an editor entirely capable of writing its own editorials, as I think you will be likely to learn to your own satisfaction. Now is it possible for you, in the high and true political atmosphere in which the Sentinel lives and has its being, and after all your talk about "machine politics" and "corrupt Congressional rings," to believe the fact that not a word or syllable has passed between any member of the Congressional delegation of this State, either of the House or Senate, and myself since the adjournment of Congress upon the subject of politics except mere formal courtesies congratulating me upon my renomination? Yet such I assure you, as any other member of the delegation will, is the literal truth.

And now, lest you should have another spell of editorial nightmare, permit me to assure you that I have not seen Mr. Keyes since my arrival at Madison, and he knows nothing of this communication addressed to you. Pardon me for noticing a change so absurd, which you see fit to make upon grounds so puerile, but there are some things too preposterous to be submitted in silence.

Very respectfully,
C. G. WILLIAMS.

The Latest Nonsense at Newport.

From the New York Sun.

Among the high novelties imported from London fashionable circles this summer are the so-called singing quadrilles, Mrs. Augustus L. Whiting not long ago gave a reception, at which this feature was introduced. The dancers dressed as Watteau shepherds and shepherdesses, would in appearance have done honor to the charming little pastoral fetes of the gardens of La Petit Trianon, in which Marie Antoinette and the Comte d'Artois so greatly delighted. If the dress and the dancing reminded one of France, the singing was purely English, being a happy adaptation of Mother Goose's melodies set to dancing music. The cavalier goes forward singing:

Little Bo Peep has lost her sheep,
And don't know where to find 'em.

To which the lady advancing in turn, gaily answers:

Leave them alone and they'll come home,
And bring their tails behind them.

Or the shepherd sings (and this had even better success than the legend of the sheep):

I won't marry you my pretty maid.

To which the bergere, with a comical and sprightly reverence, archly warbles:

Nobody asked you sir, she said:

All this is very childish and very amusing. The idea of dancing quadrilles originated with the French, and, like many other ideas and contrivances was adopted by the English.

Cloverlawn, the Kernochan cottage on Marine avenue and the cliffs, has been this summer a very gay house. At one of Mrs. Kernochan's receptions some of the huntsmen of the Queen's County Hunt danced a singing quadrille in full hunting costume—scarlet coat, boots, breeches, etc. The women were dressed as marquises—rich brocades, powdered hair, rouge and patches.

In the Hands of His Party.

Reno Gazette—"Johnson, my boy," cried Hinderspur last night, shaking his friend warmly by the hand, "Mrs. H. tells me you will soon be a father."

"Ye-es," replied Johnson absently, "subject of course, to the decision of the Reno delegation to the Republican County Convention."

Encouragement for the Feeble.

So long as the failing embers of vitality are capable of being re-kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized and sustenance afforded to each life-sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition and thoroughly safe. Use it, and regain vigor! sep10deodw1w

Teachers' Examinations

—FOR—

FIRST DISTRICT, ROCK COUNTY.

FALL OF 1878.

Examinations will be held as Follows:

At Evansville, September 10 and 11.
At Rock River Schoolhouse, Sept. 17 and 18.
At Fulton, September 19, 20 and 21.
At Newark Center, September 24 and 25.
At Orfordville, September 26, 27 and 28.
At Footville, October 16, 17 and 18.

Examinations in each case will commence at 9 1-2 o'clock, a. m. Be punctual at the appointed hour.

All persons intending to teach in this Supt. Dist. the coming term, are expected to attend one of the public examinations. Do not ask for renewals, licenses, or permits, as they usually bespeak deficiency for the parties thus applying. No private examinations will be granted before the first day of November, and then only in strict conformity to the letter of the law.

As there will be no regular organized Teachers' Institute this fall in this district, exercises of importance and interest to teachers will be presented in connection with the examinations. Come prepared to take a part. A Teachers' Meeting will be held at Evansville, September 12 and 13, conducted by Prof. A. R. Sprague, assisted by some of the experienced teachers of the district. A lecture may be expected on the evening of Sept. 12. Let there be a general rallying of teachers.

Examinations and Institute exercises are public, and all interested are invited to be present. District officers are especially urged to attend the examinations, and select teachers from observation of their work. Ability and willingness to do good work at the examination, should entitle a teacher to a position; while those who are unwilling to spend time and money to qualify themselves, or will make no sacrifice of their own ease to become successful teachers, are hardly worthy of your patronage.

BOGUS FIFTIES.

With a History of the Nefarious Work of Counterfeiters.

Six weeks ago Philip Kemper, saloon-keeper on Sansom street below Eleventh, changed a $50 note for Harry Harris, of 619 South Eleventh street. It was numbered 62,360, of the Tradesmen's National Bank of New York city, and comparison soon showed that it was counterfeit. The engraving was poorer than that of the genuine and it was one-quarter of an inches shorter, yet its general appearance was well calculated to deceive an inexpert holder. A watch was kept for Harris until Monday, when he reappeared and was arrested. He had a hearing before Alderman Urian, who to settle all doubts about the character of the note took it to the bank, where it was immediately pronounced bogus. Harris made no explanation, and being fully identified was committed in default of $1,000 bail for trial.

About four months ago a gang of expert shovers of the queer took over to Europe about $150,000 of the spurious $50 notes of the Tradesmen's and Central banks of New York and a Buffalo bank, all printed in the main from the same plate, but with the names of the banks and the cities altered to make a variety. These were "shoved" upon the brokers at Hamburg, Antwerp and other German cities as genuine American money, and they in turn exchanged it with emigrants who desired to dispose of German coin. One party who were on their way to Nebraska fell in with a bogus emigration agent, who so ingratiated himself that they entrusted to him the exchange of all their wealth, $9,000, for this trash. They landed in this country, bought tickets and were on their way to Nebraska before the railroad ticket agent discovered the character of the money they had paid him for their fares. They were overhauled by telegraph and compelled to return to New York. Investigation showed where they had obtained the notes, and information sent to Germany by cable resulted in the breaking up of the nefarious traffic and the arrest of the swindlers.

A Bonanza King.

Mr. Mackay, the bonanza king, was born in Dublin, in 1835, and is now in the very prime of life. His career up to the year 1863 was marked by many vicissitudes. He then became associated with Mr. T. M. Walker, and to this firm were added, in 1865, Messrs. Flood and O'Brien. In 1868 Mr. Walker retired, and Mr. Fair came in. The stupendous enterprise of these four men then became manifest. They having secured the Hale and Norcross, one of the bonanza mines, were enabled to procure others, finally purchasing the Consolidated Virginia ground for about $80,000. Further acquisitions of territory resulted in their obtaining the marvelous deposit of ore known as the Comstock lode. With their constantly increasing capital, and the active and incessant efforts made by Mackay and his partners, the wonderful bonanza mines were eventually opened to the astonished world. Mr. Mackay has three-eighths of the profit derived from them, and yearly adds to his overflowing exchequer the almost fabulous sum of $12,000,000. This is calculated to bring him in exactly $25 per minute, $1,500 an hour, and $36,000 a day. Little over forty-two years of age, Mr. Mackay is still in the prime of life, has a handsome, commanding face, splendid physique and fine presence, and whether among his miners, in the society of the elite, or in the bosom of his family, we behold in the boss of the big bonanza all those attributes which go to make up the thorough man and the courtly gentleman.

The Coming Violinist.

Wilhelmi's career has been a remarkable one. Born in 1845 of an aristocratic family, he played in public before he was nine years old, when he was regarded as a prodigy. But those praises only incited him to a more strenuous cultivation of his talents. He will come to us laden with laurels he has won in Germany, in France, in Italy, in Russia, and above all in England, where he resided from the spring of 1875 to the fall of 1877. He is distinguished for the inimitable purity of his tones, and the success with which he treats composers widely differing from each other.

Banged Hair and Close Dresses.

Correspondence of the Woman's Journal.

Every day I meet in the streets of Boston young ladies, who would otherwise look intelligent, reduced to the appearance of idiocy by a peculiar method of combing the hair down over the forehead. This hideous deformity is evidently copied from the patients of lunatic asylums and schools for the feeble minded. The effect is shocking. Although not fastidious, I shrink from these ladies as children shrink from a hideous mask. Is it a protest against being considered strong-minded that the young women thus assume the garb of idiocy? I am told that a lady thus degraded is said to have her hair "banged." But it seems to me that her sanity must be badly banged to thus deform herself.

The present hot weather is made more intolerable by the spectacle of women with dresses which cling to their forms with a closeness positively indelicate—dresses drawn back by some strange attachment behind, which fetters every movement. If the "banged" young woman has made my blood run cold, the pull-backed young lady throws me into a profuse perspiration out of sympathy with her self-inflicted martyrdom. Will the ladies of the New England Woman's Club kindly inform me why women thus make guys of themselves?

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every fibrous contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has found its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specimens of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable.
HENRY WELLS, of Wells, Fargo & Co.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, Waltham, Mass.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., Muscatine, Iowa.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 225 Pine St., St. Louis.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
M. W. ARMSTRONG,
129 Harrison Ave., Boston.

WE have sold Sanford's Radical Cure for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
L. D. LEWIN & CO., Washington, Ind.

THE cure effected in my case by Sanford's Radical Cure was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, Druggist, Boston.

Each package of Sanford's Radical Cure contains the Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

The town of Union will be entitled to four delegates; the balance of the towns and the wards of the City of Beloit two, each.

Dated this 2d day of September, 1878.

WM. ALCOTT,
O. C. JOHNSON,
I. S. HOXIE,
Committee.

THIRD DISTRICT.

The Third Assembly District Convention, of Rock County, comprising the towns of Bradford, Clinton, Fulton, Harmony, Johnstown, La Prairie, Lima, Milton, Porter, and Turtle, will meet at the Court House, in the city of Janesville, on Thursday, the 26th, of September, at two o'clock p. m., to nominate a candidate for the Assembly, in said district, and transact any other business which may properly come before the Convention. As per resolution adopted at the Assembly Convention, of August 10th, 1878, the several towns will be entitled to the same number of delegates as in the County Convention, viz.: Clinton, Milton, and Fulton, four each; Porter, Lima, Johnstown, Harmony, La Prairie, Bradford, and Turtle, two each.

By Order of Committee.

Some Old Folks.

George Morgan has just died at Streatham, England, within a few weeks of completing his 108th year.

Bernard Doran lives and enjoys life at No. 126 Mott street, New York, at the age of 106 years, lacking a few months.

Alfred Bennett of Troy, New York, having arrived at man's estate, married Miss Melissa Hull Monday. Alf. was 98 and 'Liss 40.

Mrs. Hannah Mattason, of Bennington, Vermont, who died last week at the age of 93 years, had been confined to her bed for fifty years.

James Atwater, of Colebrook, New Hampshire, celebrated his 95 birthday, August 29, by playing his first game of croquet. Boys will be boys.

Robert Beers, of Pittsburgh, having successfully accomplished his 103 year, credits himself with being the oldest steamboat captain living.

Charles Macklin was beyond cavil the champion "old stager," having walked the boards for ninety years, his last appearance being in his 100th year.

Julia Smith, the only surviving sister of the Glastonbury, Connecticut tax-resisting women, now in her 97th year, has been so affected by the recent death of her sister Abby, that her life is despaired of.

Miss Margaret Higby died at South Canaan, Conn., August 23, aged 99. She came of a long-lived family, her grandmother and mother, who were also named Margaret, dying at the age of 100 and 102 respectively.

Father Brophy, of Boone, Iowa, who is over 100 years old, got into a fist-fight with a neighbor the other day and came out first best.

The Martinsburg, West Virginia, Democratic State Senatorial Convention, Thursday week, accomplished its work under the direction of Isaiah Buck, who, aged 95, presided with great dignity, the oldest chairman of any of the political conventions of the year to date.

Mrs. Desire Gregory, of Danbury, Conn., celebrated the 100th anniversary of her birthday recently by a large gathering of her children, grand children and great grandchildren. She retains her faculties remarkably well, and is very active for a person of her advanced age.

Mrs. Reuben Cousens died at Sherborn, Mass. on the 1st instant, aged 98. Thirty years ago a burglar entered the house, clubbed Mr. and Mrs. Cousens until he was satisfied they were dead, and then retired. Mr. Cousens was killed, but Mrs. Cousens lived to the great age herein reported.

Jennie Etting, finding herself at the age of 101, possessed of a picture of Washington painted by Stuart for her father, Solomon Etting, of Baltimore, has presented it to the Maryland Historical Society. Miss Etting was present a number of times in Stuart's studio while he was at work on this portrait, so that its authenticity is beyond question.

Baltimore county, Md., boasts of the oldest man in the country. He is a colored man, William Scott by name, and claims to be 149 years old. He is a local preacher of the Methodist Episcopl church, and says he was present at the first conference of the church ever held in this country. He claims to have known the mother of George Washington before the immortal George was born. This, the Baltimore Gazette with some propriety remarks, beats Washington's body servant all to nothing.

Wanted to Save the Country.

From the Detroit Free Press.

A man whose every look betrayed anxious thought knocked softly at Bijah's door.

By his air
One would know he was a
Stranger there.

"Mr. Joy, this country is in an awful way," he began as he took a chair.

"Is—that—so?"

"Yes. I can't sleep nights for thinking of it. We must save her. We must effect a compromise between capital and labor, creditor and debtor, officeholder and elector, and thus save this glorious old nation from destruction. Tell me what to do, sir?"

Bijah looked him over from head to foot, made a mental guess at his age and weight, and finally replied:

"Mister man, my advice to you is to begin to lay in turnips, 'taters, and beans for winter use, and to let this country strictly alone. It's none o' your business to save her, sir,—none o' your business what he comes of her!"

"But won't you advise me, sir?"

"Yes, you bet I will! Go home, or somewhere, and get a clean shirt! Go and get your hair cut and your face washed! Go and fill up your lankness with a free lunch and you might hire a boy to hoe the mud off them boots! Save this country! Why, sir, you couldn't save the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section one of a mud hole!"

'Mr. Joy, do I deserve this?"

"Yes, and more, too! There are a dozen more just like you around town. They are always talking about this poor country, and wanting some one to save her, while their wives and children go hungry for bread and shiver all winter for the want of clothes. Git right out of here, sir. Go and wash up and then go to work. When this dear suffering country wants your services, I'll drop you a postal card."

"Mr. Joy, won't you let me save this country?"

"No, sir!"

"Can't I be a patriot?"

"No, sir!"

"Can't I —?"

"No, sir!"

The man paused for awhile, and then in a sad voice he asked:

"Mr. Joy, I believe you could lend me a quarter if you tried awful hard!"

The old man grew black and blue in the face, but suppressing his emotion, after a moment he forced a smile and replied:

"Please come out into the back yard. I keep my silver buried out there for fear of thieves."

He started out, a diabolical grin on his mouth, but the man who wanted to save the country made a sudden break for the street and got away.

How the House Will Elect.

The law of Maine prescribes that the lower House from the four highest candidates shall select two whose names the latter body must select the one who shall be Governor. If, therefore the Greenbackers and Democrats are in a majority in the House, they may send to the Senate the names of their respective gubernatorial candidates, and the Senate, although itself Republican, will be forced to choose between Smith, Greenbacker, and Garcelon, Democrat. There are some of the straight-out Democrats, however, who are said to have pledged themselves against the selection of a Greenback candidate nominee for Governor, and thus there is a chance for the Republicans yet.

East Liverpool, Ohio, has the largest potteries devoted entirely to ironstone china and decorated ware in America. Firms that formerly gave employment to sixty and seventy hands now have work for 200 and upward, and the whole number employed in the potteries is now over 2,000 men, women and children. The shipments of crockery from that place from January 1, 1878, to June 4 were 29,479 packages.

To the Christian Public.

From the Eureka, Nevada, Sentinel.

The gentleman who attracted so much attention in church last Sunday by crying out "Holy Lord!" had no intention of distributing the congregation. He had been putting down carpets, and as he sat down in the pew he suddenly remembered that he had left some tacks in his coat-tail pocket. We made mention of this in justice to his family who are highly respectable.

VEGETINE

Vegetine Purifies the Blood and Gives Strength.

DU QUOIN, ILL., Jan. 21, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir,—Your "Vegetine" has been doing wonders for me. Have been having the Chills and Fever, contracted in the swamps of the South nothing giving me relief until I began the use of your Vegetine, it giving me immediate relief, toning up my system, purifying my blood, giving strength; whereas all other medicines weakened me, and filled my system with poison; and I am satisfied that if families that live in the ague districts of the South and West would take Vegetine two or three times a week, they would not be troubled with the "Chills" or the malignant Fevers that prevail at certain times of the year, save doctors' bills, and live to a good old age. Respectfully yours, J. E. MITCHELL.

Agent Henderson's Looms, St. Louis, Mo.

ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.—If VEGETINE will relieve pain, cleanse, purify, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health, after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

VEGETINE

Has Entirely Cured Me of Vertigo.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

CAIRO, Ill., Jan. 23, 1878.

Dear Sir,—I have used several bottles of "VEGETINE"; it has entirely cured me of Vertigo. I have also used it for Kidney Complaint. It is the best medicine for kidney complaint. I would recommend it as a good blood purifier.
N. YOCUM.

PAIN AND DISEASE. Can we expect to enjoy good health when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease; and these humors, being deposited through the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints? Remove the cause by taking VEGETINE the most reliable remedy for cleansing and purifying the blood.

VEGETINE

I Believe it to be a Good Medicine.

DR STEVENS:—

XENIA, O., March 1, 1877.

Dear Sir,—I wish to inform you what your Vegetine has done for me. I have been afflicted with Neuralgia, and after using three bottles of the Vegetine was entirely relieved. I also found my general health much improved. I believe it to be a good medicine.
Yours truly,
FRED HARVERSTICK.

VEGETINE thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

Dr. Price's reputation has been acquired by candid, honest dealing and years of successful practice.

My practice not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trifling, no flattering. We know the cause and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained by years of experience in the treatment of Chronic diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visits made regularly.

CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—Council again to-night.

—The thermometer is getting over its cold.

—The churches were well patronized yesterday.

—Business will be fairer after fair business is over.

—Mss. J. P. Moore, of New Orleans, is a guest of Mrs. C. B. Conrad.

—Father Doyle is reported as on the gain. It is to be hoped that he will soon be himself again.

—Mrs. Clarke's boy who accidentally shot himself Saturday is getting along nicely, and the wound will not have any serious result.

—The Presbyterian Sunday school yesterday did itself proud. A collection was taken for the yellow fever sufferers, and the snug little sum of $25 raised among the children and young folks.

—Saturday two fellows went into Spong's restaurant and after filling up with a lunch wanted to settle at fifty cents on the dollar. Some loud talk was indulged in and lively threats, but no blood spilled.

—Miss J. P. Moore, of New Orleans, who has spent fifteen years among the freedmen of the South, will speak at the Baptist church this evening at half past 7 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

—T. H. Austin's threshing machine did some big work last Saturday on his farm, under the management of J. and A. Calcae. One hundred bushels of barley were threshed out in twenty-five minutes. Who can beat this?

—The shoe factory is doing a lively business. There are now 46 men steadily employed, and still the managers are a month behind on their orders. Their goods are giving good satisfaction and their trade is rapidly increasing.

—A Janesville artist of no mean ability and artistic taste, has sent two very fine paintings to the Sandwich Islands. They will be shipped from New York on a sailing vessel going around the Horn, and six months of good sailing will be required to reach the Islands.

—A Fond du Lac mother has been searching about the city for a runaway son named Charles De Groat, aged about 11 years, who, she heard, had come to Janesville, and was en route for the sea coast to become a "salt." She failed to find her boy and has gone back to the North.

—A woman living near the Milwaukee and St. Paul round house is said to have been inhumanly treated Saturday night by some young bloods. The officers are hunting up the facts, as there appear to be two sides to the story. No warrants have yet been taken out and no arrests made.

—Tom Welch was brought up to-day on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday. There was quite a hunt after witnesses and when they were found they only testified that they drank the simplest kind of pop, and that they had no intoxicants at all. This knocked the bottom out of the case.

—Major F. F. Stevens has received information that his brother Fred, formerly of this city, and now of New Orleans, where he has been engaged in the post office for some years, is recovering from the yellow fever. Two friends of his who nursed him during his illness have both fallen victims to the disease, and have died.

—Among the curiosities in the book line Mr. F. Whitaker has just received, is "The Celestial Worlds Discovered: or Conjectures Concerning the Inhabitants, Plants and Productions of the Worlds in the Planets," published in London in 1698. The illustrations, are curious specimens of the genius and astromomical knowledge of the seventeenth century.

—A prominent business firm of this city, having some legal business to do at Minnesota Lake, Minnesota, wrote a letter to the postmaster inquiring the name of some responsible attorney, and received the following reply:—"There is not an attorney in this place." Evidently a chance for an ambitious sprig of the law to hang out his shingle.

—Mr. Bishop who lives near Beloit, passed through the city to-day with twenty-nine ponies from his farm. The drove was being taken to Jefferson to show up at the fair. The ponies were some of them so small that they could be dipped up by the spoonful, while others were a few grades larger. They attracted general attention on the streets.

—The Detroit Free Press has been quoted as publishing two weeks ago an item which it is claimed the Gazette rewrote last Saturday as a local paragraph. Strangely enough the Free Press contains no such thing. If the accuser will produce at this office a copy of that paper containing the alleged item, a $5 bill will at once be given, and given gladly to his family or his creditors.

—Mr. Rockwood was not as dangerously hurt Saturday as first reports indicated. The horse in turning about tipped over the buggy, and Mr. Rockwood falling to the ground struck on his shoulder and head, suffering a bad concussion, but breaking no bones, and though very lame and sore, he is able to be up and around the house to-day. The tipping over of the buggy frightened the horse and he bounded over a fence, leaving the wreck of the vehicle behind him, but not hurting himself even by a scratch.

—Mr. C. Miner and his assistants in the treasury department of the State Fair deserve the highest credit for the able manner in which the thousands of dollars were handled. In settling up the accounts of tickets sold, etc., there was only $1.05 discrepancy, and not a single bit of counterfeit money was found in the boxes. Considering the hurry and flurry with which the business was necessarily done, and the large amount of bills and change handled, this is rather remarkable.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 67 degrees above zero, and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 81 degrees above. A murky morning and flying clouds during the day.

The indications are, for the upper lake region and Mississippi valley, clear weather, followed by increasing cloudiness and occasional rain, warm southerly veering to colder northwest winds, and falling, followed by stationary or rising barometer.

A LIVELY HORSE DEAL.

Charley Wilcox tells a pitiable story as to how he has been used by a young man named W. W. Knowlton, hailing from Kansas, who came here via Rockford, a few weeks ago. He says he bought a horse of Knowlton, and in part payment gave a due-bill for board at one of the hotels against which Wilcox had a claim. He also says he lent the young fellow a suit of clothes and a velvet vest until he could get his sent to him. Knowlton became somewhat alarmed lest he should not get the due-bill paid, and refused to turn over some money which he had collected for Wilcox, and wanted to turn it on account. Some such complication of monetary affairs led to a wrangle last Saturday night, and Wilcox says Knowlton pounded him unmercifully, near the Edwards House. He further charges Knowlton with having come to his room yesterday morning as he lay in bed sore and lame from the previous night's thumping, and that Knowlton again threatened to beat him if he did not sign a certain paper. Wilcox refused and the young fellow grabbing the bridle which hung on the wall left the room saying he was bound to have the horse back anyway. Shortly afterward Wilcox discovered his pocket book lying near the door, and on opening it found that the bill of sale and warranty of the horse had been taken out. He at once informed the officers and Knowlton was arrested on the charge of larceny. The bill-of-sale has been recovered by the officers. Knowlton on being arranged this morning pleaded not guilty, and an adjournment was taken until Wednesday. Wilcox also swore out a replevin for the clothes which the young man was wearing.

A BAD TIP-OVER.

Three ladies had a narrow escape from being seriously injured about noon to-day. Mrs. S. E. Jones, and Miss Ella Dare of St. Louis, daughter and granddaughter of Mrs. Sleeper, who are visiting here for their health, had just finished a call upon Mrs. Guernsey, when Miss Minnie Guernsey volunteered to take the ladies home in a buggy. The three were proceeding along Court street near its terminus, where there is a sharp ravine, when the horse shying a little, the buggy wheels slipped over the edge of the embankment and the vehicle was overthrown. The horse too was thrown down and lay there helpless. Miss Guernsey was thrown clear of the buggy, but the other two were thrown under it. She righted the buggy and the ladies managed to get out of the wreck with only a few scratches and bruises. It is a wonder that they escaped thus easily. The street at that point is in a dangerous condition, it being scarcely wide enough for two teams to pass, and the least unsteadiness of a horse or driver is likely to cause a most serious accident. It would be economy for the city to see to this at once, as there is a constant liability of some one being hurt, and the city would doubtless have the bills to pay.

OFF THE BAT.

The contest for the League championship is now nearly closed, there remaining but four games between the Providence and the Bostons.

The Chicagos were defeated by the Cincinatis Saturday the score being 9 to 6.

The Milwaukees on Saturday defeated the Providence nine 4 to 3.

At an exhibition game between the Indianapolis and the Bostons Saturday, the Bostons were whitewashed. Their opponents scored 4.

The following men have been positively engaged for next year: Chicago has a full nine consisting of Larkin, Anson, and Hankinson, of this year's nine, Flint, Quest, Shaffer, and Williamson, of Indianapolis, and Peters, of Milwaukee. The name of the ninth man is withheld for the present. For Cincinnati, seven men have been engaged: Will White, Sullivan, McVey, Dickerson, and Kelley, of this year's team, remain. Willie Foley, of the Milwaukees, has been secured for third base, and Burke, of the Tecumsehs, of Toronto, will play short stop. Jones, of this year's Cincinnatis has made a three-years contract with Boston. Bond, Sutton, Morrill, Jones, and Burdock, are the only players under contract with Boston for next year.—Chicago Times.

"SCRATCHY" NASH.

The well-known crook and burglar, "Scratchy" Nash, who was caught here a few weeks ago having in his possession some stolen silver-ware belonging to parties in Whitewater, whose houses had been burglarized, was taken to the penitentiary where he will remain two years unless pardoned out. "Scratchy" has committed many depredations in this vicinity, and his name has frequently appeared upon the criminal records of this county.

A BURNING BRIDGE.

The big wooden railroad bridge tried to furnish a red-hot item to-day. Some of the ties caught a coal and nourished it, and tried to get it into a blaze, but the smoke gave it away by the time it had burned a place about a foot square, and the railroad men spying it drenched it with water. It needed but a little more time to have developed it into a big blaze.

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me before April 1st, 1877, will oblige by calling and settling the same within 30 days. All claims not settled within that time will positively be left with an officer for collection. All persons not able to pay their account will call and get a receipt for the same. All able to pay a part call for I am determined to settle my old book and this is the last time I will spend money calling upon you for settlement, therefore, if you wish to save costs give this your immediate attention. S. S. JUDD.

LAST CENTURY'S RELIGION.

At the Baptist church Rev. Mr. Chapell delivered the first of a series of lectures on the Great Awakening of 1740, the topic of the evening being "The Condition of Religion 150 years Ago." The congregation was large and deeply interested, and the lecture was delivered extemporaneously, the speaker showing complete mastery of his subject.

A cursory reference to the political condition of Protestant countries was first made. Civilized America consisted of a few colonies ranged along the seaboard, containing a population of about one million people. Slavery existed in Massachusetts as well as South Carolina. Hostile Indians swarmed on the outskirts of the settlements. The governments of England and Scotland had been fairly consolidated. The burdensome reign of James the Second had closed and the more acceptable periods of William and George I. had succeeded. It was an era of unusual activity in an unusually active century. The Bank of England, the largest fiduciary institution in the world, was fairly established; the East India Company was then organized; the South Sea Bubble showed that it was a most speculative era. Likewise it was a period of great intellectual agitation. If there were champions of the most extreme orthodoxy there were also champions of the most bitter skepticism like Gibbon, Hume, and Hobbes. It was in this age that the novel began to be employed as a reformatory agency as it has been in modern days by Thackery, Dickens, and Reade. Authors did not then use such fantastic titles for their productions as now. Addison's Spectator, Steele's Tattler, and Johnson's Rambler, these titles reflected the purposes of the writers.

Religious denominations did not exist in the manner with wqich we have acquaintance with them. There were no Methodists, and but few Baptists, and these were persecuted by laws and edicts. Religion was engrafted upon secular government. In Scotland the Presbyterian plan of salvation was employed; in England the Episcopal; and in the colonies, the Congregational. No man could hold office or vote unless he was a communicant in the legal church. Where religion was thus formal and made to order and where it was produced by coercion on the part of government rather than by voluntary acceptance on the part of men, there were three results manifested; a complete absence of spiritual life; no experimental religion in the pulpit; no growth in grace among the people. It was impossible for such weak defenses to withstand the violent assaults of the infidel giants of the age. But in the midst of the christian apathy and the skeptical activity there were a few saintly souls alive to the emergency, among whom were Watts, Burnet, and Butler whose names are cherished by christians. It was at this time that Wesley, of England, Edwards, of America, Tennant, of Ireland, and Whitfield, a cosmopolitan, held high the banner of the cross.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Appointment and Confirmation of Inspectors and Clerks of Election.

An adjourned meeting of the Common Council was held at the City Hall on Saturday evening. His Honor, Mayor Norcross, in the chair, all the Aldermen being present except Alderman Joyce, Lawrence and Wilcox.

The reading of the journal was dispensed with.

After mutual explanations concerning the action of the Council on the nominations for Inspectors and Clerks of election the Mayor read a section from the charter defining the duties, etc., of Aldermen, which stated that no Alderman could serve in any other official capacity, during his term by which he would receive pay from the City Treasurer. He also stated that he had conferred with the City Attorney of Milwaukee, the charter of which city is similar to our own, and that official was of the opinion that no Alderman could act on the Election Board, and that it was held the same in the city of Madison. The Mayor after expressing these views stated to the Council that if they would take a recess of ten minutes he would confer with them as to the appointments.

Ald. McKinney then moved a recess of ten minutes, which was adopted.

At the expiration of the ten minutes, the Council was called to order and the following nominations were announced by the Mayor:

Inspectors—Hiram Merrill, E W Vanderlyn, Thomas T Croft.
Clerks—J B Doe, Jr., C E Bowles.

SECOND WARD.

ROCK.

—There seem to be a good many on the sick list in this community. Mrs W H Church is improving as fast as could be expected after her severe illness. Mrs E W Sims is also recovering. Mrs R Deuel is quite sick with ague, likewise about a half dozen others in Afton.

—The Baptist church have expended over $100 in improving their property in Afton. These improvements consist in building a fence around the church lot, and of painting the building inside and out. Messrs H Kimball and E T Taylor did the painting.

—The Janesville Association of Baptist churches, representing fifteen churches mostly in the counties of Rock and Green, held their annual session in the Baptist church, closing on Thursday of last week. About one hundred and twenty-five delegates and visitors were present. The Rev Mr Chapell of Janesville preached the opening sermon on Wednesday morning. It was an able effort, and showed careful preparation. Two other excellent sermons were delivered before the association by Rev's Marston of Clinton, and Lansing of Darlington, Wis. The session was one of unusual interest and profit, and was very harmonious throughout. It left a good impression in this community.

Lady Lawyers.

The female millenium appears to be dawning. There are women doctors, clerks, and jury men, and soon there will be women lawyers. Before they attempt to speak they should use Sozodont to give beauty to their mouths which are destined to complete their success as orators.

Female Lawyers will stick to their clients like Spalding's Glue to wood.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

If Baldness or a Deficiency of Hair Exists, or if the hair is gray, dry or harsh, the natural youthful color can be restored by using "London Hair Color Restorer," the most delightful article ever introduced to the American people for increasing its growth, restoring its natural color, and at the same time a lovely hair dressing and beautifier. It is totally different from all others; not sticky or gummy, and free from all impure ingredients that render many other articles obnoxious; in fact it is exquisitely perfumed and so cleanly and elegantly prepared as to make it a lasting hair dressing and toilet luxury.

J A TYNES, A PROMINENT CITIZEN, Wilson, N. C., writes: Some ten years ago my wife's hair commenced falling, and got very thin and turned gray; but after using "London Hair Color Restorer" the scalp became healthy, the hair stopped falling, the color was restored, and is now growing beautifully.

Ask your druggist for London Hair Color Restorer. Price, 75 cents a bottle. Six bottles, $4. Main Depot for the U. S., 330 North Sixth St, Philadelphia. jy29deodwly,-1

Excessive Heat.

And unwholesome diet at this season of the year may speedily carry you to the grave. Parker's Ginger Tonic, by its corrective action on the entire digestive apparatus, will not only unfailingly cure Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Infantum, Colic, Cramps, Spasms, etc., but will prevent those dangerous disorders from attacking the system. It may save your life, and should always be kept in the house. This pleasant remedy is unequaled for teething children, nursing mothers. Possessing many additional virtues of other valuable roots, it is far superior to Essences of Ginger, without their constipating effects, and while more invigorating than liquors never intoxicates, nor creates any desire for stimulants. It cures Dyspepsia, and its varied symptoms of Headache, Nervousness, Palpitation of the Heart, Wakefulness, Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Liver Disorders, Furred Tongue, Low Spirits, Neuralgic and Rheumatic Pains, enables you to enjoy the fruits and vegetables of the season without fear, and gives comfort after a hearty meal. Buy a $1.00 bottle of your druggist, A. J. Roberts, or a sample bottle at 15 cents, and test its extraordinary merits. jy2daweowtsep30
